Monday Shelfie

Posted on January 17, 2022 by Henna

Little Monday Shelfie of just the essentials. I know I share empties, but this is what I've using right now and it's just perfect.

Moogoo Body Cream at the way back and the Leave-In conditioner for hair. Love both of these – I've found that my skin and hair both love a bit of protein on them. Hair gets smoother and skin feels softer. If you zoom in, you can see that they're both half-full.

Keratin Works BB cream. Again, has a bit of keratin that my hair likes. Naturally Serious Skincare exfoliating pads. I like these and find them pretty mild. If I've not wearing makeup, I use them as a cleanse. I'm sure it's not recommended but my skin hasn't rebelled yet.

Dior Lip Glow oil. It's ok. I used it all day yesterday and I didn't find that my lips were any more moisturizer at the end of the day.

Have you tried any of these? What do you think?
